Winter 22-23' | Issue 16 | Jan. 27, 2023

Full Speed Ahead

This last weekend kicked off the rest of our seasonal products with the addition of Base Camp! This means we are now in the full swing of winter offerings. It will be busy and, our staff resources will be spread more thinly.

Remember, we sell lessons and inventory based on schedules submitted at the start of the season.

We expect staff to fill these commitments and, we understand that things come up. If that happens and you need to request a change, we first ask that you reach out to another staff member to cover your shift.

Thank you for your help and understanding!
