

Winter 23' -24' | Issue 1 | Oct. 13, 2023

The days are getting shorter and we received our first dusting of snow on the upper peaks! It's the signal that winter is approaching and it's time to switch to our winter format of The Word!

It also means that onboarding will start ramping up. See below for more information. In the meantime, enjoy the last bits fall before the snow flies!

Onboarding Next Steps & SIS Return to Active

Winter is quickly approaching which means next steps (steps 4+) are right around the corner. These steps are dependent upon the indoor training days you select in your schedule so, if you still need to submit, click here.

Your indoor training will serve as your first onboarding date and we will cascade next steps to you two weeks before that date. For new employees, this includes preparing for your I9. For SIS employees, this is when we will return you to an active status.

For a quick breakdown of these steps and what to expect, check out our onboarding quick reference page.

As well, to expedite uniform process, please complete this form so that your uniform can be pulled ahead of indoor training.
