

We are headed into our fourth week of operations - and the holidays!
We have wrapped up our Outdoor Trainings, many thanks to our Clinic Leaders for their exceptional instruction!

It's been great to have everyone back on the mountain and prepared and ready to be on the snow!

Please connect with us if you need assistance with anything.

It's Holiday Time at SSBS!

December 21-27 Sweater Weather Face-Off

Staff are invited to wear their best holiday or winter sweaters!

December 28: SSBS Staff Party

Save the date! We will celebrate the holidays and kick-off the New Year here at the SSBS - come enjoy some treats and time together!

Epic Wellness

As we head into the busy holiday time, make sure to get rest, hydrate, and consume nutrient rich meals along with those treats.

To help keep our team germ-free and healthy this season, stay home if you are sick, cover your coughs and sneezes, and wash your hands.

Indulge in some Epic Wellness tips and resources for more self-care!

Learn more here about these resources, including the Employee Assistance Program, virtual mental health and peer support options.
