With a big winter storm settling into the forecast, we're heading into the weekend with a high potential for deep snow, busy roads, and the kind of conditions that remind us why we love working in the mountains. As we gear up, this issue has a few important reminders and helpful resources to keep everyone moving safely and smoothly.

A couple reminders if you are driving up that being prepared includes car readiness for winter conditions. Here is a short checklist of some items that can be helpful to throw in as you head up

Extra Layers and Emergency Bivy:
Jacket, hat, gloves
Blanket or sleeping bag
Hand warmers / foot warmers
Dry socks

Safety & Emergency Gear
Chains / traction devices
Jumper cables or a portable jump starter
Ice scraper/snow brush
Small shovel
Headlamp or flashlight with extra batteries

Food, Water & Comfort
Water! (Insulated so it doesn't freeze)
Non-Perishable snacks
Power bank for your phone

Prefer to drive with a buddy? Sign up or find a carpool using this link HERE
Prefer to let Stevens do the driving? Transit schedule is posted at the end of the issue.

* If you plan on taking transit, and want real time updates, text "westbus" or "eastbus" to 1-360-230-1116
