Another Preseason Update: Lesson Connect!

As we continue preparing for the season, we wanted to share another look at Lesson Connect, our new tool that will help enhance both the instructor and guest experience this winter.

While we'll cover everything you need to know during preseason training, we've included an FAQ below for anyone who would like to learn more ahead of time. The FAQ covers what the platforms do, how they'll support lesson delivery, and what you can expect this season.
